The University of Wollongong invites you to participate in Diversity Week 2010 with the Rollerhawks!

Rollerhawks star Brett Stibners in action last year scoring 39 points against Perth

Picture: SYLVIA LIBER – Illawarra Mercury

Diversity Week

Diversity Week at the University of Wollongong is about recognising and celebrating the diverse staff and student community on campus.

A week-long series of events and activities are designed to celebrate race and ethnicity, the abilities of people with disabilities, gender and sexuality, and our Indigenous people.

Rollerhawks Demonstration

On Tuesday April 20th 2010, the Rollerhawks will be holding a demonstration and interactive training session at the University Sports Hub.

We are inviting all staff, students, alumni and community members to attend this event and would love to see everyone take part in this interactive demonstration. It will be a great opportunity to discover the wonders of wheelchair basketball and see the abilities and talents of our local athletes!

Date: Tuesday 20th April 2010
Time: 12:30-2:30pm
Venue: University Sports Hub
Bring your Friends and Family along!
